Section 103 Delayed Payment Policy

Montana Fishing Guide School will require students to pay any changes for which there is no expectation the VA will pay based on statute or VA regulations, such as fees for room and board or the unmet portion of tuition and fee payments, such as a result of the student qualifying for less than 100% entitlement level. Montana Fishing Guide School in accordance with Title 38 USC 3679(e), will not penalize or charge any eligible student receiving VA benefits for any late fees including denial of access to classes or other institutional facilities, or require the student to borrow additional funds due to the inability to meet financial obligations to the institution as a result of delayed payments for education assistance from the VA. Montana Fishing Guide School will not collect payment from a student for tuition and fees while it awaits VA payments within a 90-day period.

Grading System

The Montana Fishing Guide School uses an instructor evaluation of the students knowledge and ability. The class as a whole is graded on a pass-fail system. If by the end of the course the student has not acquired the necessary proficiency they will not pass the course and will not receive a certificate.

Students will be evaluated daily on:

- 1.) Attendance
- 2.) Skills
- 3.) Competency
- 4.) Attitude
- 5.) Completion

Student Records and Transcripts

The Montana Fishing Guide School will maintain student records of attendance, evaluation, grades, and any conduct reports for a minimum of 3 years. At any point during this time students may contact the school to request copies of their certificates or any documents with their file.

Graduation

Upon successful completion of all course objectives every student will receive a certificate of completion with the title of the course completed from The Montana Fishing Guide School.

Review of Prior Credit

The Montana Fishing Guide School will review all prior credit and grant credit where appropriate reducing the students overall course length. Students are required to submit previous education and training with Certificates of Eligibility.
